8. [redacted] BRIEFING Gwen Pritchard, STAT
in the office of Representative Ike Skelton (D., Mo.), called to say that Mr. Skelton and up to 44 other Congressmen are scheduled to go to Panama on an inspection trip leaving on 27 November. Mr. Skelton, based upon his earlier breakfast briefings at the Agency, has suggested that potential travelers get a briefing by CIA beforehand, and suggests Thursday, 3 November, at 8:00 a.m., as a possible time. He said the State Department is sponsoring the trip (Curt Cutter, of State's Panamanian Desk, is the action officer), and is particularly interested in inviting Congressmen who are undecided as to how to vote on the Treaty. I told Pritchard that I would check on the request and get back to her but noted that it might be easier for members to have a briefing on the Hill rather than getting to the Agency at 8:00 in the morning. I referred the matter to George Cary.

9. [redacted] LIAISON Marvin Feuerwerger, STAT
in the office of Representative Christopher Dodd (D., Conn.), called with three requests. He asked first for a briefing for himself on the political reaction in NATO and the Soviet Union to recent discussions of the possible U.S. deployment of weapons with neutron warheads in Western Europe. He emphasized that Mr. Dodd had asked that he be given this briefing in line with Mr. Dodd's high continuing interest in the subject. I noted that his interim Secret clearance might be an impediment to our giving him a briefing but that I would check and let him know. His second request was to receive a weekly unclassified survey on energy which he understands that we put out. I said I would check on that. His third request was for a list of unclassified publications that CIA has put out or puts out on a regular basis. I said I would check on that and let him know.

10. [redacted] LIAISON Steve Williams, in the STAT
office of Representative Gene Taylor (R., Mo.), called to request a general pamphlet on the CIA plus one clerical and one professional employment package. I said I would take care of this for him. I forwarded the pamphlet to him and advised [redacted] of the latter. STAT
